

Student Link

Internet Treasure Hunt for Grade 5 (Science: Brain and Nervous System)

Student Name: _____

- A. Go to the Grade 5 door.
- B. Click on Science and Technology.
- C. Under Human Organ Systems click on How ...Body Works
- D. There are 15 different sections. Click on "Brain"

Brain

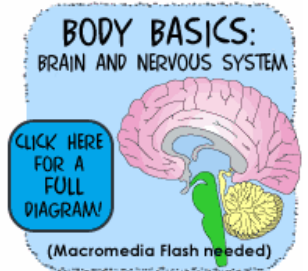

1. Clicking each of the body parts will open a window. Click on the  to close the window when you're done. The brain is made up of five major parts. Read the paragraphs and summarize what each part does.

2. Click on the image for the Interactive Demo. There are three separate views to examine. Click on each part to learn more.

What do the occipital lobes do?

What does the temporal lobe do?

What takes place in the frontal lobe? (hint: you're using it right now.)

3. Read the section entitled "You Have Some Nerve!"
- What are neurons? _____
- What is the amygdala? What does this area do? _____
- Five ways to say thanks to your brain: _____, _____, _____, _____, _____

Student Name: _____

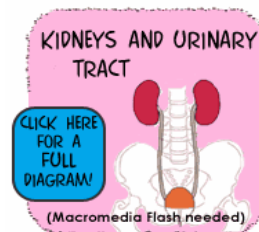

4. Return to the "My Body" page and click on

Kidneys and Urinary Tract

Fill in the blanks: Your kidneys are just as important to your survival as your _____. Most people have _____ kidneys. The main job of the kidneys is to _____ waste out of the blood. Your kidneys filter out all your blood _____ times a day!

The kidneys are part of your urinary tract system. There are actually four parts. Use the interactive demo to complete the chart below:

Urinary Tract Part	Function / Description
The kidneys

15. Under "Cleaning Up" and Keeping a Balance" you will learn that the kidneys have other jobs as well. Explain below:

