

Student Link

TIME Magazine for Kids

The news magazine goes online...

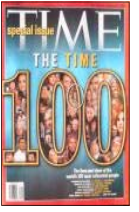

Student: _____

TIME TO BEGIN

1. Go through the Grade 6 door and click on Current Events. Under the category of "Canadian" click on TIME for Kids. What is the URL of this site?

There are six different categories listed on the menu bar at the top. The first one is "news". List two more that sound interesting to you:

_____ and _____

2. What question is the "Poll of the Day"? _____

On the right-hand side of the webpage, the TIME issues are divided into three grade categories. What are they?

_____, _____ and _____

3. Click on the grade category that is appropriate to your grade (Grades 4-7). What is listed under "Top 5"? _____
Click on it.

Now, click on the what do you think? link underneath and prepare a brief comment about what you just read. Click "submit" when you are done, and then "back" to return to the main page.

4. Select kid scoops (top menu bar) and answer the following questions:

A) What is the top headline?

B) Click on one of the current stories featured on this web page. Read the article (or interview) carefully and prepare a 3-4 sentence summary of what it is about:

TIME TO EXPLORE

Student Link

TIME Magazine for Kids

Student: _____

5. Return to the TIME magazine for kids (TFK) homepage by clicking the BACK button. Click on "homework helper".
What subjects are listed on this page? Name them in the chart below.

As a Canadian student, which of these subjects on this site would be LEAST relevant to you?

In one sentence, explain why.

6. Choose just one of the subject areas you listed above. Write down the different types of sub-categories that are listed for that subject:

7. Click on ONE of these sub-category links. Are any subtopics listed at the top of the page? (circle one) YES! NO!

If "yes", count the number of sub-topics and write the number here: _____.

If "no", count the number of "best sites" and write the number here: _____.

Select one of the "best sites", click on it and write down its URL here:
_____.

Recommended by

Zack Dale

8. Overall, do you like the organization and layout of TIME for Kids? Is it a site you might bookmark and use for future projects and research? Write three constructive comments below, clearly indicating your opinions about this site. Proofread your work before submitting it to your teacher.

Overall, I would give TIME for Kids (TFK) an overall rating of _____ out of 10.

