

Student Link

Internet Treasure Hunt for Grade 7 (History : Canadian Women)

Student Name: _____

1.	Click on the Grade 7 door. Select Something Different . Choose Can. Women's Achievements . Look for Activism .	 Activism
2.	Throughout our history many women have dedicated their lives to achieve equality and justice, not just for women, but for all Canadians. Click on
3.	Name the Canadian women known as the Famous Five .	Visit LAC's Famous Five Web site
4.	What issue did the Famous Five challenge in the Supreme Court of Canada?

5.	Were they initially successful?	 Canada 46
6.	Where did the Famous Five then turn with their case? What was the final outcome?
7.	What aspect of women's lives did The Famous Five want to improve?

8.	Scroll down and select Henrietta Muir Edwards .
9.	In 1875, Muir began her involvement in women's causes. Name the association she founded with her sister.
10.	Which "first" for Canadian women did Muir launch?
11.	Working with Lady Aberdeen, Muir founded two organizations. They were: a) _____ b) _____

Student: Name: _____

1.	Go _____ and select Nellie McClung . Nellie McClung had experience in a variety of careers. They were: _____
2.	Name all of the organizations for women that McClung founded.
4.	One of McClung's first successful accomplishments occurred in 1916. What was it?
5.	Describe the types of legislation McClung sponsored as part of the Liberal Party.

6.	← Back Select Louise Crummy McKinney .
7.	McKinney had three "firsts" for Canadian women. List all of them.
8.	← Back Select Irene Marryat Parlby .
9.	Describe Parlby's achievements in association with the United Farm Women of Alberta .

10.	← Back Select Emily Ferguson Murphy . Explain Murphy's role and the significance of the Dower Act of 1911.
11.	Name the two organizations Murphy founded that furthered the rights of women.
12.	Which "first" was Murphy in Canadian History?
13.	Murphy wrote under the pen name, Janey Canuck . Describe how her writings influenced and impacted on the Canadian legal process.

